

CODELCO, an autonomous company owned by all Chileans, is the world's leading producer of mined copper, with the largest global mineral reserves, and a key driver of Chile's development.

| | | |
|---|------------------------|--|
|  | INVITATION: | CODELCO invites you to visit the operation of the “El Teniente” Mine, the largest underground copper mine in the world. |
|  | PURPOSE: | Provide insight into El Teniente's operations, with access to the underground mine and a visit to the Sewell Camp, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. |
|  | VISIT DURATION: | Full-day visit, including transportation and meals. |
|  | CAPACITY: | Up to 40 people, distributed into 2 groups. |
|  | DATE AND TIME: | Wednesday 26: 07:00 AM – 05:30 PM (Max 20 people) Thursday 27: 07:00 AM – 05:30 PM (Max 20 people) |
|  | LOCATION: | El Teniente is located in Machalí, Libertador General Bernardo O'Higgins Region, 50km from Rancagua. |

The invitation includes round-trip transportation from a predefined meeting point.

Limited availability: Slots will be assigned in the order registrations are received. Visitors must comply with CODELCO'S visit requirements (attached document) and complete a visit registration form (sent to those who sign up until capacity is reached).

